

Jiali Wang, Ph.D., DABR (D,N)
Program Director

Dr. Jiali Wang has been with Kaiser Permanente since September 2017 and serves the San Bernardino County service area. Dr. Wang actively participates as a committee member in multiple professional organizations, including the American College of Radiology (ACR), the American Board of Radiology (ABR), and AAPM. His interests include CT, Nuclear Medicine and MRI Safety.

Education:

- Doctor of Philosophy in Biomedical Engineering
Florida International University (2009)
- Master of Science in Biomedical Engineering
Florida International University (2005)
- Bachelor of Engineering in Biomedical Engineering
Zhejiang University (2003)

Certification:

- American Board of Radiology - Diagnostic Medical Physics (2012)
- American Board of Radiology - Nuclear Medical Physics (2014)

Professional Organizations and Activities:

- American Association of Physicists in Medicine
- Member of CT Accreditation Subcommittee, ACR
- Reviewer, ACR CT Accreditation Program,
- Reviewer, ACR Nuclear Medicine and PET Accreditation Program
- Member of OLA NMP Examination Subcommittee, ABR
- Member of Imaging Practice Accreditation Subcommittee, AAPM