

Robert Merrill, Ph.D., DABR, DABSNM
Senior Diagnostic Physicist

Dr. Robert Merrill has been with Kaiser Permanente since July 2009, and serves the Riverside service area. His interests include MRI, CT, and Nuclear Medicine. In addition to serving as faculty for the residency program, he is a member of the residency program steering committee.

Education:

- Doctor of Philosophy in Physics
Rice University (2001)
- Master of Science in Physics
Rice University (1998)
- Bachelor of Arts in English Literature
University of Texas at Austin

Certification:

- American Board of Radiology - Diagnostic Medical Physics
- American Board of Science in Nuclear Medicine - Nuclear Medicine Physics and Instrumentation

Professional Organizations and Activities:

- American Association of Physicists in Medicine